

Law Enforcement &

Increase Trust & Transparency

- Allow residents to reach out safely, securely, anonymously, and directly to share information with officers.
- Quickly and directly share alerts with information about crimes of note, patterns being seen in neighborhoods, etc. and offer the ability for residents to submit relevant tips.
- Provide a publically available crime map linked to your records management system to show residents where and when crimes occur and allow integrated tips through our mapping partner.

Promote Community Engagement

- Ask residents to help fight crime by taking responsibility for safety in their community.
- Engage new members of the community who may have been too afraid to come forward by coming into the station or picking up the phone.
- Reach out to immigrant communities with native-language tip411 posters to inform them of this safe, anonymous way to share information with police.
- Provide a tool for family members of all ages to reach out for help with issues like drug use, domestic abuse, and more as it offers a safer way to reach police without identification or having to call and be heard.

Agencies Have Great Success with tip411

- Minneapolis, MN Police Department received over 3,000 tips in the past 24 months.
- Onondaga County, NY Sheriff's Department received over 225 tips in their first 12 months, opening 70 cases and closing nearly 80% through arrests
- Hazard, KY Police Department receives intel they would not have otherwise received in 25% of tips sent by residents using tip411

See What Others Are Saying

- “ I don’t believe that there’s ever been a time in recent history where it’s as important as it is right now for law enforcement to lean...tip411 helps a conversation to develop and build that trust that’s necessary. For the dollars, the effort, the functionality, and the outcome...it’s money well spent.”
 - Chief Paul Schnell, Maplewood, MN Police
- “The tip411 system is essential to modern policing. I’ve used this system during my time as chief in Somerville, MA, Clearwater, FL, and now in St. Petersburg, FL, and I truly believe this tool empowers officers and the community to engage in ways that were not possible before.”
 - Chief Tony Holloway, St. Petersburg, FL Police
- “People want to come forward, but they’re petrified. tip411 has helped remove that fear and has been a really a fantastic addition to our arsenal.”
 - Captain Dan Brogan, Onondaga County, NY Sheriff’s Department
